Submitted to His Highness.

In Government Order No.6669-6728/P.P.53-20-5 dated 28th April 1922, certain arrangements were sanctioned in regard to the administration of the Yelandur Jaghir during the minority of the Jaghirdar (Mr. Nagaraja Rao Purnaiya) and Mrs. Saraswathi Narasinga Rao Purnaiya, the mother and guardian of the Jaghirdar, was entrusted with the general management of the Jaghir. The Jaghirdar attained majority in May 1924 but as it was represented that his assuming charge of the Jaghir immediately would interfere with his education, Mrs. Saraswathi Narasinga Rao Purnaiya was allowed to continue to manage the Jaghir as his duly constituted Agent. This arrangement has been continued from year to year and under existing orders will cease from the 11th August 1928.

2. In the meantime, communications have been received from the Jaghirdar, intimating that he wishes to assume charge of the Jaghir on the 3rd August 1928, and also from Mrs. Saraswathi Narasinga Rao Purnaiya stating that she is handing over charge to her son on the said date. Orders permitting this have been issued and the papers are submitted for gracious information.
